(2) Subject to section 10 no person in possession of or control over any document or information relating to any business or transaction of the procuring entity shall communicate or attempt to communicate any information contained in such document or pass on such documents to any person other than the Accounting officer, a member of the tender board or the Procurement Management Unit.

PART V

PUBLIC PROCUREMENT PRINCIPLES

Standards of equity

47. Procuring entities shall, in the execution of their duties, strive to achieve the highest standards of equity, taking into account-

- (a) equality of opportunity to all tenderers;
- (b) fairness of treatment to all parties; and
- (c) the need to obtain the best value for money in terms of price, quality and delivery having regard to set specifications and criteria.

Duties of procuring entities

48.-(1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any written law, where any expenditure is to be incurred on any procurement of goods, works or services, it shall be the duty of -

Cap.348

- (a) the accounting officer designated as such under the Public Finance Act,

Cap.290

- (b) the accounting officer designated as such under the Local Government Finances Act; or
- (c) in respect of any other public body, the chief executive officer of that public body, to ensure the procurement of goods, works or services is in accordance with the procedures prescribed under this Act or Regulations.

(2) The head of internal audit of each public body shall in his quarterly audit report include a report on whether this Act and Regulations made under it has been complied with and the accounting officer upon receiving such report shall submit a copy thereof to the Authority.

(3) The external auditor of every public body shall, in his annual report, state whether subsection (1) has been complied with.

(4) Subject to subsection (5) every Accounting officer shall be accountable for failing to comply with the provisions of subsection (1).

(5) Where an accounting officer satisfies the Authority that he had, in accordance with the provisions of any rules or Regulations made under this Act, delegated his functions under subsection (1) to any other person or committee, then such other person or every member of the committee shall also be accountable for the failure to comply with the provisions of subsection (1).

(6) The Authority shall, in the case of any failure to comply with the provisions of subsection (1), take appropriate corrective or punitive measures as it may consider necessary.

Approval
annual procurement
plan

49.-(1) A procuring entity shall prepare its annual procurement plan in a rational manner and in particular shall-

- (a) avoid emergency procurement wherever possible;
- (b) aggregate its requirements wherever possible, both within the procuring entity and between procuring entities, to obtain value for money and reduce procurement costs;

- (c) avoid splitting of procurement to defeat the use of appropriate procurement methods unless such splitting is to enable wider participation of local consultants, suppliers or contractors in which case the Authority shall determine such an undertaking; and
 - (d) integrate its procurement budget with its expenditure programme.
- (2) The annual procurement plan shall be approved by an appropriate budget approving authority.
- (3) The procuring entity shall observe the approved annual procurement plan and any unplanned procurement shall get a prior written approval of the accounting officer.

Procurement of common used items and services

50.-(1) The procuring entity shall, for the purpose of efficiency of procurement process and reduction of procurement transaction costs within and across public bodies, engage in closed or open framework agreements in accordance with the procedures prescribed in the Regulations where it is determined that:

- (a) the need for the subject matter of procurement is expected to arise on a repeated basis during a given period of time;
 - (b) by virtue of the nature of the subject matter of the procurement, the need for it may arise on an urgent basis during a given period of time; and
 - (c) other grounds and circumstances that justify recourse to a framework agreement procedure.
- (2) The Agency shall, in collaboration with the Authority set procedures for procurement of common use items and services by procuring entities through framework agreements.

(3) For the purpose of this section, “closed or open framework agreement” means an agreement with specified terms and conditions with or without an agreed price, respectively.

Qualifica-

51.-(1) Tenderers shall, in order to participate in procurement proceedings, have to qualify by meeting appropriate criteria set out in accordance with this Act and Regulations made under it.

(2) Local tenderers wishing to participate in any procurement proceeding shall satisfy all relevant requirements for registration with appropriate statutory bodies in Tanzania.

(3) Foreign tenderers wishing to participate in the proceedings are exempted from the requirement of subsection (2), but where as a result of the procurement proceedings, any foreign tenderer is selected as having submitted the lowest evaluated responsive tender or the best ranked proposal, such a tenderer shall register with the appropriate professional statutory body and shall be required to submit evidence of registration as an approved supplier, contractor or consultant in Tanzania.

(4) Subject to sections 53 and 54 of this Act, any qualification criteria shall be made known to, and apply equally to all tenderers and a procuring entity shall impose no discriminatory criteria, requirement or procedure with respect to the qualifications of any tenderer.

Pre-
qualification proceedings

52.-(1) A procuring entity may engage in pre-qualification proceedings with a view to identifying tenderers prior to inviting tenders for the procurement of goods, works or services.

(2) The circumstances and procedures for pre-qualification shall be prescribed in the regulations made under this Act.

Postqualification

53.-(1) The procuring entity shall, where tenderers have not been pre-qualified, determine whether the tenderer whose tender or proposal has been determined to offer the lowest evaluated tender, in the case of procurement or the highest evaluated tender in the case of disposal of public assets by tender, has the legal capacity, capability and resources to carry out effectively the contract as offered in the tender before communicating the award decision.

(2) The criteria to be met shall be set out in the tendering documents and if the tenderer does not meet any of these criteria, the tender shall be rejected and the procuring entity shall make a similar determination for the next lowest evaluated tenderer, in the case of procurement or the next highest evaluated tender, in the case of disposal of public assets by tender.

(3) In case of a foreign company, the procuring entity shall seek the reference of legal existence of the tenderer from Tanzania Diplomatic Mission abroad or from any other reliable source.

(4) A procuring entity shall require a tenderer who has submitted a lowest evaluated tender in the case of procurement or highest evaluated tender in the case of disposal by tender to demonstrate again its qualifications before the award of contract is confirmed.

(5) The criteria and procedures to be used in subsection (4) shall be the same as those used in the pre-qualification proceedings set out in section 52 of this Act and shall be specified in the tendering documents prepared by the procuring entity.

(6) The procuring entity shall, where tenderer with the lowest or highest evaluated tender fails to post-qualify, reject its tender and select the next lowest or highest evaluated tender from the remaining tenders, provided that the procuring entity has a right to reject all remaining tenders in accordance with section 59.

National preferences

54.-(1) Tenderers are allowed to participate in procurement proceedings without regard to their nationality, except where the procuring entity has limited participation in procurement proceedings on the basis of nationality in accordance with this Act, the Regulations, or any provisions of any other written law.

(2) The procuring entity shall, when procuring goods, works or services by means of international or national tendering, or when evaluating and comparing tenders, grant a margin of preference for the benefit of tenders for certain goods manufactured, mined, extracted or grown in the United Republic, for works by Tanzania contractors or services provided by Tanzania consultants, provided that this is clearly stated in the tender documents subject to the provisions prescribed in the regulations made under this Act.

(3) Tanzania contractors or consultants shall be eligible to be granted a margin of preference as provided for in subsection (2) only if they meet the following criteria -

(a) for individual companies -

- (i) are incorporated or registered in the United Republic of Tanzania;
- (ii) majority of the paid up share capital of the company is owned either by the Government or by citizens of Tanzania;
- (iii) there is no arrangement whereby any major part of the net profits or other tangible benefits of the domestic company will accrue or be paid to persons who are not citizens of Tanzania or to companies which would not be eligible under this section.

(b) for joint ventures of local companies -

- (i) individual member companies are incorporated or registered in the United Republic;

- (ii) majority of the paid up share capital of the individual companies are held by citizens of Tanzania;
 - (iii) the joint venture itself is registered in Tanzania;
 - (iv) do not have arrangement whereby any major part of the net profits will accrue or be paid to persons who are not citizens of Tanzania or to companies which would not be eligible under this section;
- (c) for partners or individual persons trading as contractors or consultants the majority are held by citizens of Tanzania.

(4) For all procurement under international and national competitive tendering, incentives set out in the Regulations made under this Act, shall be used to encourage foreign firms to team up with Tanzanian tenderers in the form of joint venture or subcontracting arrangements in the tender process and in the execution of the contract.

Exclusive preference to local persons or firms

55.-(1) Where financial resources are exclusively provided by a Tanzanian public body, each procurement of works, goods or services that has a value not exceeding a threshold specified in the Regulations shall be reserved exclusively for local persons or firms.

(2) Where the procuring entity does not proceed with the local person or firm set-aside under subsection (1), and procures on unrestricted basis, the procuring entity shall include in the procurement file the reason or reasons for the unrestricted procurement.

(3) Where procuring entity receives only one acceptable offer from a responsible local person or firm in response to procurement set-aside, the procuring entity may consider to make an award to that person or firm.

(4) Where the procuring entity receives no acceptable offers from responsible local persons or firms, the set-aside procurement shall be withdrawn and if the requirements are still valid, new offers shall be resolicited on unrestricted basis.

Procurement from Agency

56. A procuring entity shall procure from the Agency following a procedure to be prescribed in the regulations made under this Act.

Language

57.-(1) Pre-qualification documents and tender documents shall be written in English and tenders shall be invited in that language except as provided for in subsection (2).

(2) Where a procuring entity has limited participation to national competitive tendering or to Tanzania nationals only, tender documents may be written in either Kiswahili language or English language and tenders may be requested for in either of the languages.

Securities

58.-(1) Where a procuring entity requires tenderers who are submitting tenders to provide any form of tender security or bid securing declaration, such requirement shall apply equally to all tenderers.

(2) A successful tenderer shall be required to submit performance guarantees, subject to the conditions specified in the regulations.

(3) Subject to the provisions of subsection (1) and (2), the types of securities shall be specified in the regulations.

(4) The Authority shall issue guidelines, to be updated from time to time, on the minimum values and modalities for provision of tender security and other forms of guarantees or bonds.

Rejection of tenders or proposals

59.-(1) Tender documents and request for proposals may provide that procuring entities reject all tenders or all proposals.

(2) The rejection of all tenders or all proposals under this section shall be justified where-

- (a) there is lack of effective competition;
- (b) tenders or proposals are not substantially responsive to the tender documents or to the request for proposals;
- (c) the economic or technical data of the project have been altered;
- (d) tenders or proposals involve costs substantially higher than the original budget or estimates;
- (e) exceptional circumstances render normal performance of the contract impossible;
- (f) tenders received contain serious irregularities resulting in interference with the normal play of market forces; or
- (g) funds voted or earmarked for the procurement have not been withheld, suspended or have otherwise not been made available.

(3) The lack of competition shall not be determined solely on the basis of the number of tenderers or persons who made proposals, and where all tenders or proposals are rejected, the procuring entity shall review the causes justifying the rejection and shall consider -

- (a) making revision to the conditions of contract, design and specifications, scope of the contract, or a combination of these before inviting new tenders; or

(b) revising the request for proposals (including the short list) and the budget.

(4) Where the rejection of all tenders or all proposals is due to lack of competition, wider advertising shall be considered and where the rejection is due to most of the tenders or proposals being non-responsive, new tenders or new proposals may be invited from the initially pre-qualified firms, or with the prior agreement of the appropriate tender board, from only those who submitted tenders or proposals in the first instance.

(5) The appropriate tender board's prior approval shall be sought before rejecting all tenders or all proposals, soliciting new tenders or proposals or entering into negotiations with the lowest evaluated tenderer.

(6) Subject to the provisions of subsection (5) the accounting officer shall seek approval from the Authority prior to rejecting tenders or proposals.

Acceptance of tender and entry into force of a procurement contract

60.-(1) Subject to the provisions of section 59, the tender or proposal that has been ascertained to be the successful tender or proposal pursuant to the provision of this Act shall be accepted.

(2) The accounting officer shall be notified by the tender board of its award decision within three working days of making the decision.

(3) Upon receipt of notification, the accounting officer shall, immediately thereafter issue a notice of intention to award the contract to all tenderers who participated in the tender in question giving them fourteen days within which to submit complaints thereof, if any.

(4) Subject to subsection (3), the accounting officer of a local government authority shall, before issuing a notice of intention to award a contract, submit the award decision to the Committee responsible for finance and planning, for scrutiny, and where the Committee is dissatisfied with the decision of the tender board, it shall request the Authority to conduct an investigation pursuant to section 33(3).

(5) Where no complaints have been lodged pursuant to subsection (3) the accounting officer shall issue a notice of acceptance to the successful tenderer.

(6) The notifications referred to in subsection (3) and (5) shall be communicated in a written or electronic form as prescribed in the tender document and be signed by accounting officer.

(7) Where a tender, offer or proposal has been accepted by the Accounting Officer, the procuring entity and the person whose tender, offer or proposal has been accepted shall enter into a formal contract for the supply of goods, provision of services or undertaking of works.

(8) A formal contract shall be in such form and contain such terms, conditions and provisions as contained in the tender document.

(9) Any formal contract above the thresholds specified in the Regulations arising out of the acceptance of a tender, offer or proposal under this Act shall be vetted by the Attorney General before being signed by the parties.

(10) Contracts below specified thresholds in the regulations shall be vetted by legal officers employed by respective procuring entities.

(11) A procurement contract shall enter into force when a written acceptance of a tender is communicated to the successful tenderer.

(12) The accounting officer shall, within thirty days from the date of award notify the Authority, the name of the person or body to whom the contract is awarded, the amount of tender or proposal and the date on which the award was made.

(13) The parties may use hand written or digital signatures in signing contracts specified under subsection (9).

(14) The accounting officer shall, within thirty days after the communication of award, notify unsuccessful tenderers the name of the person to whom the contract is awarded and the contract amount.

Records,
on and notices

61.-(1) A procuring entity shall maintain a record of its procurement proceedings in which it is involved, including decisions taken and the reasons for it and such record shall be kept for a period of not less than five years from the date of completion of the contract and be made available when required to the Minister and the Controller and Auditor-General.

(2) The record referred to in subsection (1) may, under special circumstances, be kept beyond the period specified in that subsection in the manner and duration prescribed in the regulations.

(3) A list of tenderers who submitted tenders and the prices tendered, as read out at the time of opening the tenders in public, may be made available to tenderers and to the general public.

Blacklisting

62.-(1) The Authority shall have power to blacklist a tenderer for a specified time from participating in public procurement proceedings and notify all procuring entities on such actions.

(2) A tenderer who has been blacklisted and barred from taking part in public procurement by a foreign country, international organisation or other foreign institutions shall automatically be blacklisted from participating in public procurement in the United Republic -

- (a) in the case of fraud and corruption, for such period as is debarred by that foreign country, international organisation or foreign institution plus a further period of ten years; and
- (b) in the case other than fraud or corruption, for such period as is debarred by that foreign country, international organisation or foreign institution plus a further period of five years.

(3) A tenderer shall be debarred and blacklisted from participating in public procurement or disposal proceedings if-

- (a) fraud or corrupt practices is established against the tenderer in accordance with the provisions of this Act;
- (b) the tenderer fails to abide with a bid securing declaration;
- (c) the tenderer breaches a procurement contract;
- (d) the tenderer makes false representation about his qualifications during tender proceeding.

(4) The Authority may debar and blacklist a tenderer from participating in public procurement on other grounds as may be deemed necessary by the Authority.

(5) Subject to subsections (3) and (4), the procedure for debarment shall be stipulated in the Regulations.

(6) A tenderer blacklisted pursuant to this section may appeal against the decision to the Appeals Authority within twenty one days from the date when he became aware or should have become aware of such decision.

(7) The Authority shall keep and maintain a register of all blacklisted firms in accordance with this Act.

(8) A tenderer blacklisted under this section shall not be permitted to start a new supplies, contracting or consulting firm during that period.

(9) Procuring entities shall not procure from, contract with or engage a tenderer who has been blacklisted from participating in public procurement proceedings pursuant to this Act.

(10) The Authority shall inform the relevant professional bodies upon debarring and blacklisting a tenderer.

(11) For purpose of this section, the word tenderer includes directors of a company or firm.

PART VI

METHODS OF PROCUREMENT AND PROCESSES

Application of the basic principles of procurement and disposal

63.-(1) All public procurement and disposal by tender shall be conducted in accordance with the basic principles set out in this Act.

(2) Subject to this Act all procurement and disposal shall be conducted in a manner that maximizes competition and achieve economy, efficiency, transparency and value for money.

Selection of methods of procurement

64.-(1) Procuring entity engaging in the procurement of goods, works, services, non consultancy services or disposal by tender shall apply competitive tendering, using the methods prescribed in the regulations depending on the type and value of the procurement or disposal and, in any case, the successful tenderer shall be the tenderer evaluated to have the capacity and capability to supply the goods, to provide the services or to undertake the assignment or the highest evaluated offer in case of services for revenue collection or disposal of public assets.

Public Procurement

- (2) In circumstances where -
- (a) suppliers, contractors or consultants have already been pre-qualified pursuant to section 52;
 - (b) there is an urgent need for the goods, works, or services such that it would be impracticable to engage in open national or international tendering on competitive selection; or
 - (c) there is need to achieve certain social objectives by calling for the participation of local communities;

the procuring entity may either restrict the issue of tenders in accordance with the procedures set out in the Regulations.

- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2)-
- (a) circumstances giving rise to the urgency were neither foreseeable by the procuring entity nor caused by dilatory conduct on its part; and
 - (b) the procuring entity shall include in the records required under section 61 a statement of the grounds for its decision and the circumstances leading to, or justifying the restriction.

(4) The procurement of commodities such as grain and other food stuff, animal feeds, fuel, fertilizer, the market price of which fluctuate seasonally depending upon demand and supply at any particular time, shall be carried out on a seasonal basis using methods prescribed in the regulations.

Emergency
procurement

65.-(1) Emergency procurement may be made where the accounting officer determines that it is in the public interest that goods, works or services be procured as a matter of urgency.

(2) For the purpose of subsection (1), emergency procurement shall meet one of the following criteria:

- (a) compelling urgency that creates threat to life, health, welfare or safety of the public by reason of major natural disaster, epidemic, riot, war, fire or such other reasons of similar nature;
- (b) situation whereby, without the urgent procurement, the continued functioning of the Government or organisation would suffer irreparable loss, the preservation or protection of irreplaceable public property, or the health or safety of public will be threatened.

(3) Upon satisfying the provisions of subsection (2), the procuring entity shall seek approval of the Government Procurement Services Agency before proceeding on with the procurement.

(4) For the purposes of this section, the Minister shall make regulations providing for emergency procurement and on how best quality and value for money would be ensured.

(5) The procuring entity shall apply the procedures stipulated in the regulations made under this Act for any procurement undertaken pursuant to the provisions of subsection (1).

(6) Where the procurement meets the requirements of subsection (1), the conditions relating to procurement limits, methods, tender processing periods and advertisement may be waived except that conditions relating to tender evaluation and obtaining approval of the tender board shall not be waived.

(7) The Authority shall, in collaboration with the Government Assets Management Department, the department responsible for technical audit in the Ministry responsible for finance or where necessary, with any other competent body, advise the Pay-Master General on the appropriate action to be taken pursuant to subsection (7).

(8) The Pay-Master General shall seek the advice of the Authority in respect of application for retrospective approval.

Procurement
of railway machinery, aircrafts
and ships

66.-(1) Where national interest demands that used railway machinery, ship or aircraft be procured, the procuring entity shall, upon satisfying the conditions stipulated in subsection (2), proceed with normal or emergency procurement.

(2) Where a procuring entity seeks to procure used railway machinery, ship or aircraft pursuant to subsection (1), it shall seek approval of the Minister.

(3) The Minister shall, for the purposes of subsection (2), form a Special Technical Advisory Committee to be composed of persons with various disciplines, knowledge and experience relevant to the subject matter of the procurement.

(4) The operation of this section shall not come into force until such time the regulations under section 105(1)(d) have been made and come into force.

(5) Where the procurement referred to under subsection (1) is to be done under emergency procurement, the procedure stipulated under section 65 shall, within necessary modifications, apply.

Competitive
tendering

67. A procuring entity wishing to commence competitive tendering shall provide all eligible prospective tenderers with timely and adequate notification of the procuring entity's requirements and an equal opportunity to tender for the required goods, works services or non consultancy services.

Invitation to tender and advertising

68.-(1) A procuring entity wishing to commence competitive tendering proceedings shall prepare a tender notice inviting tenderers to submit priced offers for the supply of goods, provision of non consultancy services or for undertaking the works required and such tender notice shall be submitted within reasonable time before the planned issue of the tender to the tender board for approval.

(2) The approved tender notice shall be advertised by the procuring entity as set out in the Regulations made under this Act and shall ensure widest reach of potential tenderers.

(3) Any tender notice shall be published in sufficient time, as prescribed in the Regulations, to enable prospective tenderers to obtain tender documents and prepare and submit their responses before the deadline for receipt of tenders.

(4) The time specified for the opening of the tenders submitted shall be the same as the deadline for receipt of tenders or immediately thereafter, and be repeated, together with the place for tender opening, in the invitation to tender.

(5) Subject to subsection (4) the procuring entity may prior to the deadline for submission of tenders, modify the tender documents and extend the deadline for submission of tenders if deemed necessary.

Issue of tender
documents

69.-(1) The procuring entity shall provide tender documents immediately after first publication of the tender notice to all suppliers or contractors who respond to the tender notice and pay the requisite fee, if required, for which a receipt shall be given.

(2) All prospective tenderers shall be provided with the same information, and be assured of equal opportunities to obtain additional information.

(3) Tender documents shall not include requirements and terminologies which discriminate unfairly against participation by tenderers.

(4) Subsection (3) may be deviated where circumstances demand provided that, any deviation is made on basis of provisions of the Regulations made under this Act.

(5) The scale of fees payable for tender documents shall be as set out in the Regulations made under this Act.

Content
document

70.-(1) The procuring entity shall use the appropriate standard model tender documents specified in the Regulations for the procurement in question.

(2) The tender documents shall be worded so as to permit and encourage competition and such documents shall set forth clearly and precisely all the information necessary for a prospective tenderer to prepare tender for the goods, services and works to be provided.

Validity of tenders and
security

71. The procuring entity shall require tenderers to make their tenders and tender securities including tender securing declaration valid for periods specified in the tendering documents, sufficient to enable the procuring entity to complete the comparison and evaluation of the tenders and for the appropriate tender board to review the recommendations and approve the contract or contracts to be awarded whilst the tenders are still valid.

Evaluation
criteria

72.-(1) The basis for tender evaluation and selection of the successful tenderer shall be clearly specified in the tender document.

(2) The tender documents shall specify factors, in addition to price, which may be taken into account in evaluating a tender and how such factors may be quantified or otherwise evaluated.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (2), where tenders based on alternative materials, alternative completion schedules or alternative payment terms are permitted, conditions for their acceptability and the method of the evaluation shall be expressly stated in the tender documents.

Receipt of
tender
opening

73.-(1) The Secretary of the tender board shall receive tenders using procedures set out in the regulations made under this Act.

(2) The secretary to the tender board shall give each tenderer a receipt showing the time and the date that the tenders were received, and any tender received after the deadline shall be returned unopened to the tenderer.

(3) All tenders submitted before the deadline time and date for submission shall be opened in public, in the presence of the tenderers or their representatives and other parties with a legitimate interest in the tender proceedings and the tender opening shall take place at, or immediately after the deadline time and date given in the tender documents for the receipt of the tenders and the names of all those present at the tender opening and the organisations they represent shall be recorded by the Secretary of the respective tender board.

(4) The names and addresses of each tender the total amount of each tender or and of any alternative tenders, if they have been requested or permitted, shall be read and recorded during the tender opening.

(5) Subject to the provisions of section 60(3), after the public opening of tenders, information relating to e-examination, clarification and evaluation of tenders and the recommendations concerning awards shall not be disclosed to tenderers or other persons not officially concerned with the process until the notice of intention to award a contract is notified to the tenderer who participated in the tender process.

(6) Information referred to in subsection (5) shall be made available to the Authority, the Appeals Authority, accounting officer and to the Minister when that information is so required.

Evaluation
and comparison
of tenders

74.-(1) The evaluation committee shall evaluate on a common basis tenders that have not been rejected in order to determine the cost to the procuring entity of each tender in a manner that permits a comparison to be made between the tenders on the basis of the evaluated costs, but the lowest submitted price, may not necessarily be the basis for selection for award of a contract.

(2) Any relevant factor or factors in addition to price to be considered in tender evaluation and the manner in which they will be applied for the purpose of determining the lowest evaluated tender shall be specified in the tender documents.

(3) Any procedure under which tenders above or below a predetermined assessment of tender value are automatically disqualified may not be accepted.

(4) The evaluation committee shall prepare for submission to the Procurement Management Unit a detailed report on the evaluation and comparison of tenders, setting out the specific reasons on which its recommendations for the award of each contract are based.

(5) The Procurement Management Unit shall review the evaluation report submitted pursuant to subsection (4) and submit the report and their recommendations to the tender board.

Approval of
contract

75. The tender board shall review the evaluation and recommendation made by the procurement management unit and may either -

- (a) approve the recommendation and authorize acceptance of the tender and award a contract in the form specified in the tender documents; or
- (b) refuse to authorize recommendation for award of the tenders and refer the evaluation to the Procurement Management Unit with an instruction to re-evaluate the tenders or re-tendering or other action.

Negotiation and award of contracts

76.-(1) Subject to the conditions stipulated in the regulations, a tenderer evaluated to have the capacity and capability to supply the goods, undertake the works, provide the services or purchase the assets shall be invited for negotiations by the procuring entity.

- (2) Negotiations shall not be conducted:

- (a) to change the specifications or details of the requirement.
- (b) to materially alter the terms and conditions of contract stated in the tender document;
- (c) primarily for the purpose of reducing prices in case of procurement of goods, works or services;
- (d) purely for the purpose of increasing prices in case of disposal of assets; or
- (e) to substantially alter anything which formed a crucial or deciding factor in the evaluation of tender.

(3) Where single source method was used or a competitive procurement method was used but only a single tender was received, negotiations may relate to other areas of the tender including the price tendered provided that the negotiation shall not increase price or affect the quality of the goods, works or services.

(4) Where the negotiation under subsection (2) fail to result in an acceptable contract, the procuring entity shall terminate the negotiations and after consultation with the appropriate tender board, invite the next ranked firm for negotiations”.

Alteration and amendments

77.-(1) A procurement contract shall not be altered or amended in any way after it has been signed by both parties unless such alteration or amendments is-

- (a) to the benefit of the Government or is not disadvantageous to the Government; and
- (b) is approved by the accounting officer.

(2) The total price of the amended contract shall be within percentage of the total price of the original contract as prescribed in the regulations.

(3) Time extension order shall be issued only by the accounting officer in accordance with the procedures stipulated in the regulations.

(4) Liquidated damages shall be charged on the contractor, supplier or service provider for undelivered goods or delayed services or work in accordance with the procedures stipulated in the regulations.

Selection
of consultants

78.-(1) A procuring entity commencing selection proceedings for consultancy services shall apply the procedures and the selection methods prescribed in the Regulations made under this Act.

(2) Circumstances to justify the Procuring Entity to depart from the use of selection methods shall be set out in the Regulations and the alternative approaches to be used instead.

(3) The procuring entities shall use the appropriate Standard Request for Proposals and Standard Forms of Contract issued by the Authority with minimum changes as approved by the tender board, as necessary to address specific project issues, and any such changes shall be introduced only through contract data sheets, or through special conditions of contract and not by introducing changes in the wording of the general conditions of contract included in the standard form.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (3) where the Standard Request for Proposal and Standard Form of Contract are not appropriate, procuring entities shall use other contract forms acceptable to the Authority.

PART VII

PROCUREMENT UNDER PUBLIC PRIVATE PARTNERSHIP

Scope, applicability and
approval

79.-(1) The provisions under this Part shall apply in respect of procurement and disposal by tender activities under the solicited and unsolicited partnership arrangements between the public sector and private as provided for under the Public Private Partnership Act, 2010.

Cap.103
